

Information Security Management Policy

As Çobantur, we accept and undertake to fulfill the applicable requirements within the scope of ISO/IEC 27001:2017 Information Security Management System and to review the results for improvement,

To take preventive actions for risks related to the accessibility, confidentiality and integrity of information

To protect the information assets of the organization against all kinds of threats that may arise from inside or outside, knowingly or unintentionally.

To protect the confidentiality, accessibility and integrity of information against unauthorized access

To provide access to information as required by business processes

To minimize the legal risks that may arise from security breaches by meeting the legal requirements

To protect our company's reputation and investments

To prepare, maintain and test business sustainability plans

To raise awareness of all employees with information security trainings

To ensure the security of all kinds of data in our information systems